

Hampshire Mummers' Christmas Carol

Unison        There is six good days all in the week
All for a lab'ring man
But the seventh is the Sabbath of Jesus Christ
The Father and the Son

Unison        On Sunday go to church, dear man
Down on our knees we must fall
And then we must pray that Jesus Christ
Will bless and save us all

Harmony       Then bring us some of your Christmas ale
Likewise your Christmas beer
For when another Christmas comes
We may not all be here

Unison A      Now the fields they are as green as grass
As green as any leaf
Our Lord our God has watered them
With the heavenly dew so sweet

Unison B      In hell it's dark, in hell it's dim
In hell it's full of flies
And that's the place where the wicked go
When they part from Jesus Christ

Harmony       Then bring us some of your Christmas ale
Likewise your Christmas beer
For when another Christmas comes
We may not all be here

Unison        With one stone at your head, dear man
And one stone at your feet
Your good deeds and your evil too,
Will all together meet

Unison        Then bring us some of your Christmas ale
Likewise your Christmas beer
For when another Christmas comes
We may not all be here

Harmony       Then bring us some of your Christmas ale
Likewise your Christmas beer
For when another Christmas comes
We may not all be here
